

Using and Activating the Your Master Mind Form

Today's webinar will train you in how to contemplate an inner form and how to activate it. We will use the Master Mind Form, which is located right beyond the last nodal point of the Abstract Mind Plane.

We are selecting this form because it is present in everyone, and not just in some of you—and all of you will need to use these abilities.

The Master Mind Form mirrors your development in the Abstract Mind Plane. It allows you to use the abilities you have opened up at this level of the Superconscious mind, plus it allows you to develop new abilities.

The form has three layers.

The outer layer contains the chakras that mirror your development on each of the seven Subplanes—this is the Zone of Plane Review.

The middle layer contains the centers that represent your Soul's calling and genius—this is the Zone of Soul Expression.

The inmost layer is the vortex through which your Soul activates the abilities anchored on this Plane through an inner vortex, or Siddhi Yantra.

The Zone of Plane Review

When you first encounter your Master Mind form, it appears as a golden, glorified image of your physical form, when you were in the peak of health, beauty, and intelligence.

As you begin to focus on this form, you will first become aware of the chakras, which represent your Soul's development on the seven Subplanes of the Abstract Mind Plane. These appear as geometric arrays along the spinal tube of this form. They appear as follows:

Location of Center	Ray	Color	Subplane	Content
Base of Spine	7th	Violet	Body-Mind Programming	Mastery of sports; command of the body, physiological functions, and the astral body
Navel	5th	Red-Orange	Temple of Science	Mastery of one or more of the disciplines of Science
Solar Plexus	4th	Emerald Green	Temple of Art	Mastery of a field of art
Heart	3rd	Golden Yellow	Temple of Philosophy	Mastery of philosophical inquiry
Throat	6th	Purple	Akashic Records	Ability to process and clear the Records, and to read your past lives
Thalamus	1st	Ruby Red	Demiurgic [Dynamic Creation}	Ability to create what you intend on the eight dynamics of Creation
Brain	2nd	Royal Blue	Universal Mind	Ability to align with and activate the Laws of the Universal Mind

As you reach the highest center, you then will pass beyond it, and sink down into the heart (Hridaya)—this will reveal the Zone of Soul Expression.

The Zone of Soul Expression

The Zone of Soul Expression is an inner sphere, with a form inside it. The chakras of this inner form are like radiating stars, sending out shafts of golden light. These centers are described in the table below.

Chakra	Number of Radii	Content
Base of Spine	Four	Physical professions: agriculture, construction, mining, and manufacture
Navel	Six	Family-oriented professions: childcare, educational/teaching institutions, grocery and department stores, restaurants, recreation, and healthcare
Solar Plexus	Ten	Business-oriented professions: accounting, management, clerical occupations, computer science, banking, finance
Heart	Twelve	Psycho-spiritual professions [we will go into this in greater depth in this webinar]
Throat	Sixteen	Creative professions: writer/playwright, scholar/professor, film director, art and poetry, scientific research
Thalamus	Two	The lemniscate (infinity sign) – point of choice to create or dissolve any track through the Abstract Mind Plane—this guides you to acquire knowledge and training related to these core aspects of the Soul’s expression, and to let go of knowledge or abilities that are no longer relevant to the Soul’s mission
Brain	One Thousand	The interface between the Soul and Subconscious mind; through this center, the Soul accesses its own lived experiences and the collective knowledge of humanity

The Siddhi Yantra for the Abstract Mind Plane

As you direct your attention downwards and behind you, in the navel center is the Siddhi Yantra for this Plane. This is the power center through which your Soul accesses these abilities from higher Planes.

It corresponds to the second chakra of the Planetary Man [or Woman]. This center opens within you when your Soul has moved beyond the Abstract Mind Plane.

The Twelve Psycho-Spiritual Helping Professions

We will focus on exploring the twelve psycho-spiritual helping professions, as these are the ways in which your Soul truly expresses its core service to humanity. While all of the professions that arise from this sacred heart of the Master Mind form are avenues to help other people in some capacity—either directly or indirectly—these twelve are tied to the Soul's Great Work. Here are descriptions of the twelve radii of the Zone of Soul Expression.
