

New Visions of the Path Ahead

For today's advanced webinar, we will show you the big picture of what is on the spiritual Path ahead of you, what takes place at the level of the Soul of the Bridge Path as you unfold at the cutting edge of spirituality, and some of the abilities that will dawn upon you when you begin to operate at these transcendent levels of spiritual development. Prepare to be inspired as you gaze ahead into the future of your spiritual destiny following the Mudrashram® Path.

Steps of the Spiritual Evolutionary Process in Mudrashram®

By George A. Boyd © 2014

To grasp the big picture of spiritual development, as the Multiplane Masters of Mudrashram® have revealed it to us, you can visualize the following nine stages.

Task	What Happens	Outcome
1	Soul Spark ascends to Liberation	Completion of Subtle Realm
2A	Soul ascends directly to Liberation, no Crown of Purpose	Completion of Planetary Realm
2B	Soul ascends to Crown of Purpose, builds a bridge to Liberation with the White Lotus of Immortality

Task	What Happens	Outcome
3A	Monad ascends directly to Liberation, no crown of purpose	Completion of Transplanetary Realm
3B	Monad ascends to its Crown of Purpose, builds a bridge to Liberation with the WLI
3C	Monad remains linked to the Soul (does not ascend), builds a bridge to Crown of Purpose in the Transplanetary (if there is one), and from the Crown of Purpose to Liberation with the WLI
4A	Astral Soul ascends directly to Liberation, and drops all connection to the Cosmic Sphere (Dharmakaya)	Completion of the Astral Sphere
4B	Astral Soul ascends directly to Liberation, but maintains its connection to the Cosmic Sphere, enabling it to use the forms and masteries it has developed (Sambhogakaya)
4C	Astral Soul ascends to the Cosmic Hierarchy, and does not enter into Liberation (Nirmanakaya)	Bodhisattva Vow, further spiritual development stops here, short of Liberation
5A	Supracosmic Soul ascends to Liberation as a result of doing spiritual work at this level after completing Cosmic Sphere Development	Completion of Supracosmic Sphere
5B	Supracosmic Soul ascends to Liberation as a result of co-resonant development, and no spiritual work is required at this level—one skips ahead directly to Transcendental Sphere work

Task	What Happens	Outcome
6	The Transcendental Path ensouling entity that is aligned with the axis of being is unfolded to Liberation [one of the Paths, T1 to T5, is activated]	Completion of Transcendental Sphere, part one
7	Awakening of the Soul of the Bridge Path, ascension to the Form of the Disciple, Mahatma Stage, Dharma Lord Stage, to Multiplane Mastery Stages, and ultimately, Liberation of the Soul of the Bridge Path. Satchitananda, the ensouling entity of T7, awakens in synchrony with the Soul of the Bridge Path. It is possible to liberate the other four Transcendental Sphere ensouling entities during the Multiplane Mastery Stages.	Completion of Transcendental Sphere, part two
8	Ascension of Satchitananda to the origin of T6, and Liberation of the ensouling entity of T6	Completion of Transcendental Sphere, part three
9	Ascension of Satchitananda to the origin of T7, and Liberation of the ensouling entity of T7—reaching the Infinite Stage	Completion of Transcendental Sphere, part four

If the Mudrashram® disciple continues the process of development through all nine stages, it is possible to accomplish all of the twelve Great Spiritual Works, plus returning Satchitananda to its origin. This is the potential for unlimited spiritual growth and Mastery of every Path and Division of the Continuum.

There is one scenario where disciples stop upward progress at level 4C, if they choose to assume the Nirmanakaya vesture. Here the Astral Soul stops short of Liberation, and the disciple does not develop beyond this stage. Otherwise, if each stage is done progressively, the Path leads ultimately upward into the Infinite Stage.

There are alternate scenarios at the Planetary, Transplanetary, and Cosmic levels, depending what is written in the disciple's complete record of Adi Karma, which tracks the intrinsic Soul Purpose through each higher sphere of the Great Continuum of Consciousness.

To understand how the Supracosmic Soul can be liberated, without having to work at that level—as described in task 5B—it is important to understand what is co-resonant development.

Co-resonant development means that as you unfold your ensouling entity at the cutting edge of spirituality, you concomitantly unfold the Monadic Flame on the Plane above the Soul [if you are still developing in the Planetary Realm] or the Monad [if your cutting edge is Transplanetary], the Astral Soul, the Supracosmic Soul, and the Transcendental ensouling entity aligned with the axis of being. So as your Soul moves to the next nodal point, these higher-octave ensouling entities move along with it to the same corresponding nodal point at each of these higher levels.

As you progress from nodal point to nodal point through the Planetary, Transplanetary, and Cosmic bands of the Great Continuum, the Supracosmic Soul is also moving nodal point by nodal point along its track.

Since the distance covered in the journey from Planetary to Transplanetary to Cosmic is longer than the journey that the Supracosmic Soul must take if it only has to complete one Supracosmic Path in its destiny plan, it is common for Mudrashram® disciples to discover that their Supracosmic Soul has become liberated, while they are still working on unfolding their ensouling entity in the Octaves of Being that are below the Supracosmic Sphere.

This does not occur for those individuals whose destiny plan requires that they complete two or three—or more—Supracosmic Paths before the Supracosmic Soul is liberated. In this case, disciples who have this destiny pattern would resume their spiritual work in the Supracosmic Sphere after completing either task 4A or 4B in the Cosmic Sphere. [As we have discussed earlier in this article, those that choose task 4C, stop their upward progress at the top of the Cosmic Sphere.]

While this system appears complicated, it is important to realize that there is diversity in the potential tracks that individuals can take as they journey to the Infinite Stage. As you unfold your spiritual essence through each band of the Continuum, you will follow the tasks written in your Soul's destiny, and ultimately arrive at the Infinite Stage.

As spiritual development is taking place during tasks one to six, there is a concurrent mirroring of this development in the vehicles of consciousness of the Soul of the Bridge Path. We describe this development in a recent article, which we will share with you here.

The Mystery of the Star of the Soul of the Bridge Path

By George A. Boyd © 2014

The star surrounding the Soul of the Bridge Path can be visualized in two different centers: the feet and the brow.

The Pedal Chakra – When viewed from the center at the feet of the form in which it dwells (pedal chakra), spiritual development in the realms below is mirrored as six rays uniting in the center of a star. Contemplating the right foot of this vehicle reveals the content of the rays that have been opened. Contemplating the left foot of this vehicle reveals the aspects of each ray that have not been opened, which remain a part of the unconscious mind.

The Thalamic Chakra – When viewed from the center at the point between the eyebrows (thalamic chakra), spiritual development in the realms below appears as six rings surrounding the Soul of the Bridge Path. As each successive band of the Continuum is purified, each ring is opened. So an individual who was undergoing the Second Planetary Initiation would have purified between 67% and 75% of the second ring around the Soul of the Bridge Path.

These two different viewpoints of development for the Soul of the Bridge Path are shown in the table below.

Ring	Ray of Star	Level
1	Furthest right	Subtle Realm
2	2nd from right	Planetary Realm
3	3rd from right	Transplanetary Realm
6	Furthest left	Transcendental Sphere

When disciples have completed the aligned Transcendental Path and each segment of the journey below, their cutting edge of spirituality moves onto the Bridge Path.

When this occurs, a stream of light appears in the pedal chakra, and the seed atom of the Soul of the Bridge Path enters this stream. As the Soul of the Bridge Path begins to ascend on the Bridge Path, freed from all karmas of the lower worlds, a golden orb appears in the thalamic center, and also enters a stream of light.

Three things occur when the Soul of the Bridge Path begins to ascend on the inner Path that leads to Multiplane Mastery and Liberation.

1. Its form of light enters this stream, and this form is tuned up as the Soul of the Bridge Path moves from nodal point to nodal point on the Bridge Path
2. Satchitananda is tuned up in synchrony with the development of the Soul of the Bridge Path at a further station on the Bridge Path, e.g., when the Soul of the Bridge Path moves beyond the Path Gnosis Center, Satchitananda, the spiritual essence of the 7th Transcendental Path, and its vehicle of consciousness are simultaneously unfolded as the Soul of the Bridge Path moves along its track
3. The Soul of the Bridge Path gains new powers and abilities

As the Soul of the Bridge Path begins to ascend on its track of spiritual development, a series of great powers dawns upon it. The power to operate its powers through different levels of the Continuum, to unfold the seed atoms of Supracosmic spiritual paths and to purify the other Transcendental Paths, and to teach, empower, and initiate are among the abilities that dawn upon the Soul of the Bridge Path as it makes its ascension. These abilities are described in a recent article, which we will share with you.

The Seven Transcendental Abilities

By George A. Boyd © 2014

When the cutting edge of spirituality moves into the Transcendental Sphere and aligns with the Bridge Path, there are seven abilities that the ensouling entity progressively demonstrates. These are briefly described in the table on the next page, together with where these powers first originate.

Ability	Description	Where the Power First Appears	Effective Range
1. To operate the powers of the Cosmic, Supracosmic, and Transcendental Sphere	This activates the higher octave of the will that operates through the Siddhi Yantras of the Cosmic, Supracosmic, and Transcendental Sphere. It enables the ensouling entity operate any power that it has opened along its track through these three bands of the Continuum; to activate the abilities within any spiritual form it has awakened in this range; and to operate as an Initiate at any of these levels at which it has gained Mastery.	When the cutting edge of spirituality shifts to the Cosmic Sphere	The entire Cosmic Sphere; through any Supracosmic or Transcendental Paths it has opened; and upon the Bridge Path up to the level of one's attainment
2. To use discerning wisdom and penetrating intelligence to solve any issue that arises spiritually	This ability allows an individual to assess the origins of karmic patterns and to develop a skillful means to work them out. These strategies can include the operation of spiritual powers; realignment of vehicles of consciousness to carry out specific assignments or projects within the Cosmic, Supracosmic, and Transcendental Spheres; and to work with one's Supervising Initiate to adjust karma, so it can be readily be worked out and resolved.	When the cutting edge of spirituality shifts to the Supracosmic Sphere or beyond	The entire Cosmic Sphere; through any Supracosmic or Transcendental Paths one has opened; and upon the Bridge Path up to the level of one's attainment

Ability	Description	Where the Power First Appears	Effective Range
3. To open multiple Supracosmic or Transcendental Paths to extend one's Mastery to additional areas of the Continuum	The individual does active spiritual work to awaken a selected Supracosmic or Transcendental Path in addition to the native Paths that one has already opened. This may entail using a mantra to awaken the Supracosmic Seed Atom of a particular Supracosmic Path up to the origin of that seed atom. In the Transcendental Sphere, it takes the form of awakening the spirit on that Path and leading it to liberation, plus using the Transcendental or Alayic Divine Name to liberate the ensouling entity.	The ability to awaken Supracosmic Paths first dawns when the cutting edge of spirituality shifts to the Bridge Path. The ability to awaken Transcendental Paths one through five arises when one reaches the mirror of these Paths in the upper bands of Adi Sat Guru Desh, from the stage of Sadhu and above.	Any Supracosmic Path that has been actively out-pictured in the mind of the Supreme Guru for the Supracosmic Sphere ability; T1 to T5 for the Transcendental Sphere ability
4. The ability to give the seven sacred attunements (Mudras) in the Mudrashram® Master Course in Meditation (MMCIM)	This enables an individual to awaken others using Kundalini, Nada, Mantra, Raja, Guru Kripa, Jnana, and Agni Mudras, and to reveal Dharma Mudra. The ability to demonstrate these seven attunements is the marker of Accepted Discipleship in the Mudrashram® lineage, and prepares the individual to teach MMCIM.	This ability first appears at the Form of the Disciple on the Bridge Path	This grants the ability to minister to others, and to initiate them in Subtle, Planetary, Transplanetary, Cosmic, Supracosmic, or Transcendental levels of the Continuum

5. The ability to guide others in meditation up to the Transcendental Sphere to reveal Satchitananda and the Bridge Path up to the Mahatma Stage	This ability to guide others dawns upon attainment of the empowered Mahatma stage on the Bridge Path. An individual established in this level can teach the Mudrashram® Advanced Course in Meditation (MACIM), and can lead others on the Path up to the Form of the Disciple.	This ability first appears at the Mahatma Stage on the Bridge Path	This grants the ability to minister to others, to initiate them, and guide them in Subtle, Planetary, Transplanetary, Cosmic, Supracosmic, or Transcendental levels of the Continuum
6. The ability to channel the Light and teachings of the Mudrashram® Masters to humanity as the lineage holder	The ability to become the emissary of the Mudrashram® Masters arises upon attainment of the throne of the Lineage Holder at the entrance to Adi Sat Guru Desh. The individual is anointed to be a channel of the Light, to speak the inspired satsang of the Masters, and to dictate their teachings (Gurumukh). The Divine Will overshadows the individual's personal will (Agya). This stage also enables the individual to teach the Teacher Training programs for Accepted Disciples (level one) and the Mahatma stage (level two)	This ability to act as the emissary of the Multiplane Masters of the Mudrashram® lineage arises when the Soul of the Bridge Path passes beyond the Dharma Lord stage and ascends to the first nodal point in Adi Sat Guru Desh	This grants the ability to minister to others; to initiate them, and guide, counsel, and teach them in Subtle, Planetary, Transplanetary, Cosmic, Supracosmic, or Transcendental levels of the Continuum

Ability	Description	Where the Power First Appears	Effective Range
7. The ability to empower others as an Accepted Disciple, Mahatma, or Lineage Holder	This enables the individual to bestow the Divine Light of anointing to confirm on those who have completed the requirements to act as an Accepted Disciple, a Mahatma, or a Lineage Holder	This power dawns at the mirror of the Mahatma stage on Adi Sat Guru Desh; it is usually not exercised until one has become a confirmed Multiplane Master at the Hansadeshi Stage or above	On the Bridge Path

Those who do spiritual work in the Cosmic, Supracosmic, or Transcendental Sphere gain ability one. Those who do their spiritual work in the Supracosmic Sphere gain ability two. Abilities three to seven are unique to the Bridge Path—the Multiplane Masters of the Mudrashram® lineage have brought these abilities to humanity.

If you continue to make progress in your spiritual development under the watch care and protection of the Masters of the Mudrashram® lineage, you can reach these stages of highest ability and Mastery that are available on the Bridge path. This will not come overnight, but if you persist, they will come to you.
