

A Primer on the Dark Forces—for Halloween

Most people innocently celebrate Halloween as a time to dress up as imaginary characters, and to have a fun time with their children. Creeping into these festivities are intimations of supernatural and evil entities that lurk just beneath the surface of civilization, in a repository of all that is evil in humanity.

There is such a place on the Subtle Realm: It is called the Lower Astral Plane.

In keeping with the theme of Halloween, our webinar today will portray the realms of those who fall off the Path into the Lower Worlds. We will also trace the wellsprings of human evil back to some of the Occult Hierarchy's "projects," and the subtle mental forces that draw men to fall under the hypnotic spell of the Lower Astral.

The Lower Worlds

The Lower Worlds are a series of locked Planes, cut off from the Path. This darkness covers the

1. The mandala of the five coverings (Kosas) – discovery of the eternal harmony of the Soul Spark
2. The world of fear – torment by phobias, anxiety, self doubt, and self criticism
3. Physical torment – a variety of genetic and physiological conditions that make functioning difficult or impossible
4. Madness – the separation from the law, yielding cognitive distortion, emotional dysregulation, and conative disempowerment
5. Frustrated Ghosts – separation from love and the object of their desire
6. Hell – absorption in suffering
7. Demons – embodiment of evil

Between the edge of the Plane of the Annamayakosa and the gate of the Superconscious Mind at the edge of the personality, there is a shadowy band referred to as the Lower Worlds. At the top of this band, there is a black seed.

When all of the karma of this realm is worked through, this seed dissolves, and one is united with the Soul Spark, and established in the harmony of the Divine Law.

What establishes people in these realms?

The progressive darkening effect of karma can split off this dark seed and establish one in a state of identity with one of the forms in these lower realms. This occurs when the accretion of adharmic (sinful) actions darkens all the way to the lowest level of the Subtle Realm (seat of the Soul Spark). When the karmic cascade passes below this point—"no further shalt thou go and yet be man"—it activates the dark seed and one takes up residence, identified with one of the forms of the Lower Realm.

An individual may undergo incarnations in which they are identified with states in the lower worlds as a result of adharmic action in past lives; in this case, they undergo lives of retribution or purgation.

If an individual commits no more sinful actions that resulted in this darkening of consciousness, the karmic fires of transmutation will remove someone from these Lower Realms, after the karmic sentence is fully executed.

An individual may fall into these realms by

- A single heinous adharmic action
- A sustained pattern of adharmic action over a long period of time
- Sustained use of consciousness-darkening substances (drugs or poisons)
- Being subjected to unrelenting torture and abuse at the hands of demonic individuals, and converting to their mindset

The three forces of Nature the Gunas express as the choice to (1) do good dharmic actions (rajas), (2) to engage in spiritual activities that bring about purification, atonement, and transformation (sattva), and (3) to perform adharmic actions through ignorance or the influence of others that bring about darkening of consciousness (tamas).

While some counterbalancing does occur from actions that accrue merit (punya), this canceling effect has limited scope. The adoption of transformational, spiritual modalities can dynamically transmute and uproot these karmic accretions that darken consciousness.

Agencies that can act as sattvic or transformational influences include:

- Reception of the Holy Spirit
- Light Immersion (also called Shaktipat or Divine Forgiveness of sins)
- Bija mantra
- Kriya yoga
- Nada yoga

Some individuals fall into these Lower Worlds as a result of karma; Divine Grace can extract them from these realms. But their surrender—and turning away from evil—must be complete and total. They must allow themselves to be completely re-made and guided in each moment to follow the Will Divine.

What are the Projects of the Occult Adepts?

When we study the Occult Hierarchy, and look at the work of the Occult Adepts and higher Occult Initiates, we find that Occult Adepts of certain degrees upon each of the Seven Rays are responsible for certain “projects” that are carried out in humanity. Some of these projects seem relatively benign; some bring great evil in their wake.

Each of these projects engages groups of Soul Sparks, who are carried on its powerful magnetic thought forces to enact its commands and suggestions. In some of these projects, the aim is to empower and liberate the free will of Soul Sparks from the influences that attempt to restrain their pleasure and their freedom; in other projects, certain individuals may be raised to the heights of worldly power, and enabled to rule over others with an iron fist.

We list these active Offices of Occult Hierarchy and their projects below.

Since the Occult Adepts are not going anywhere, it appears that our attempts to eradicate evil from the world will never be accomplished—for even though we kill or imprison thousands of those who do evil, many more are raised up in every generation to quickly replace them. It should rather be our task to assist the Soul Sparks to escape from the snares of these Subtle Realms by placing them on the Liberation track, purifying their spiritual vehicles, and inspiring them to stop participating in activities or projects of the Lower Astral and Occult arenas.

The Seven Manipulations of the Lower Astral

People are caught up in the fascination of the Lower Astral Plane through seven major strategies. Aspirants and disciples, who wish to avoid becoming unwitting agents of evil, must eliminate these from their behavior and thinking.

1. Intimidation or threat
2. Seduction or temptation
3. Disseminating false information and controlling what can be known
4. Creating an aura of coolness or hipness for indulging in crime, taking drugs, engaging in sexual acts, or taking advantage of the powerless
5. Breaking down the ego through torture and using brainwashing to control the mind and behavior of others
6. Deifying or glorifying celebrities, sports heroes, rock musicians, criminals, warlords, and political leaders; creating cults of personality around these individuals
7. Using hypnosis and magic to control others' behavior and thinking through their unconscious mind.

These are the forces that control multitudes. You must become aware of these manipulations and free yourself from them.
